ACTIVITIES OF APPROACH SPORT

CANI-CROSS

Since the Siberian Husky is a working dog, used for sledding over medium/long distances and its mind and structure must reflect its functionality, SESH I give great importance to approaching the sport by promoting playful activities in which members can find fun and group affiliation.

At our National Specialty a dog-cross race will be carried out, which will be run in the pine forest adjacent to the village, the trail will be on beaten and flat ground, with a length within everyone's reach of about 1 km, the entire trail will be signposted and provided of directional signs. Men will leave first, then women, then children.

The meeting point for the departure is on the entrance lawn to the pine forest, before starting the race a musher meeting will be held where the trail, signs, rules and procedure of the race will be explained.

Registration for the race is free for SESH I members and you can register by completing the online form on the SESH I National Specialty web site by 18 September www.cirn.it/registrazione_eventi/eventi_seshi/raduno_seshi_2023.html

After this deadline it will not be possible to register, nor will registrations be accepted on site. It will also be necessary to fill in a release form which you will find at the secretariat when you go to collect your bib.

In cani-cross the dog must run in front of the driver, the regulation says that the musher must never overtake the dog, which must be harnessed and tied to the driver using a tow line and a waist belt. The handler has the task to run with the dog giving exclusively verbal commands (gait, directions) and the dog runs in front of the person, keeping the line taut to reach the finish line in the shortest possible time. The dog must cross the finish line ahead of the musher (handler).

The necessary equipment required is: shoes suitable for running, soft or elastic clothes, harness for the dog, tow line and waist belt. A fixed collar around the dog's neck is also required.

Only category 1 dog with musher (handler) will participate.

In case of lack of material, SESHI makes available the equipment it has available on loan.

Rich prizes are reserved for all participants. In addition, during the social dinner on Saturday, a bib number will be drawn at random which will win a fantastic super prize!

JUNIOR HANDLING

As a tradition, this year too, can't miss a space for our young exhibitors, who will can show the dogs in a category of their own. Children and teenagers, divided into two age categories, will be evaluated for their ability to present the dog, not for the exposed subject who can be of any age and sex. A good handler tries to bring out the qualities of the dog, and to cover its defects, always putting the dog in the first light.

Thanks to our sponsors, rich prizes for all participants!

The two provided categories are:

Kids 6-11 years

Teenager 12-17 years

You can enter your child in Junior Handling class filling within september 18 the form on line which you find on SESHI National Specialty website www.cirn.it/registrazione_eventi/eventi_seshi/raduno_seshi_2023.html
